Using his vast array of management experience and dedication to "giving back", Kyle, his father, Nick, and several other entrepreneurial philanthropists spent more than five years in planning the launch of Give Back Nation.

Kyle's mission is to help great causes expand their fight while creating a "circle of winning" within communities across the nation. Let's give Nicholas and Gregory a warm Dr. Phillips Rotary welcome.

John Skandamis was happy the Clemson Tigers were doing so great.

Hinson's son Riley kicked 2 for 2. He won a punt, pass and kick competition and beat everyone in the school.

Bob Hanley is grateful for Jeff Sargent and the charity golf tourney he did with him. He gave a happy $10 for the fun he had, not for Jeff's kicking his tail on the golf course.

Jeff Sargent had a great time kicking Bob's tail. His son Chase played a great game recently and after he had dental surgery, went through an earthquake, and a hurricane the same week. Team Gamez needs your help. We need to sell 10 tickets by Oct. 23.

Sally Kamrada was so glad Carla and Fernanda came to Rotary.

Ruthann Dilauri if you are new and you don't have a shirt, you want to get a shirt for Taste. Come see Ruthann. Also, the power of Rotary prayer is alive and working. Ruthann's daughter was very sick last year and she got lots of prayers. Please pray for Terry's daughter.

Charlie Carter thanked Dr. Crotty for help with wife's skin issues. He was glad to have his guest Hayes with him at Rotary. Hayes does wide format printing and he just moved to Orlando from Arizona 6 weeks ago.

Jeff says he thought Ross's full time job was Rotary was his full time job. It's not. He makes great looking signs too.

Scott Michael gave a happy $5. He still offers to take anyone out to lunch to learn more about you. He's also requesting passes to get into Disneyland in LA. Please help, if you can.

Dr. Crotty's Men With Mortgages Band is playing Saturday at Winter Garden music festival. Also, his wife has been out of town for most of summer. She called recently to say she was coming home, but she's coming the day of the Wisconsin and Nebraska game. Not a good time for Dr. Crotty to pick her up.

Ross's son graduated from college got a full time job. He's now paying his own car insurance. Also, silent auction need items. Could use more hotel stays.

Paul Van Mechelen soccer's team will be playing in the IMG soccer academy in Bradenton. Very prestigious honor.

Colin Galloway had dinner with his mom and family. He was at the kiddy table. The kiddy table was pretty gray-haired. Thanks for the wine for silent auction. Still need more.

John Winemiller. There is an open house at I Drive club. Come one, come all.

Jack Neuhaus was still looking for volunteers for Taste of Dr. Phillips.

Dave Lehman still needs people to sell Taste tickets. Art bought 2 so far. See Dave to get your tickets to sell.

Art Brown was so glad Carla was at Rotary and that she brought a guest. Also, he was happy Army beat Tulane.

Carla was happy to be visiting. Dr. Phillips Rotary for fun club. Hopefully I'll meet each of you.

Stephen Jamieson got a notice for membership to AARP. He's feeling old.

Rich Maladecki gave $14 happy dollars. It was 14 years ago this week that Barry Roderick brought him to Rotary. It's been a great 14 years.

Terry Taggart was supposed to be in Peru but went to Raleigh instead. His daughter had successful bone cancer surgery. He is asking for prayers for her continued health and healing.

President's Message

On my flight home last Friday I was reading some of the reports on the life of Steve Jobs. As I write this note on my iPad it's a reminder that he did, indeed, have a profound impact in ways seen and unseen on many people's lives. But then another report jumped out at me. It was an interview with a biographer who was completing a book on the life of Steve Jobs. Jobs thought it was important to leave behind something for his children to know the kind of man and father that he was.

It made me pause (as much as you can at 35,000 feet) and think about the importance of our own families and the strength and value of Rotary as an organization that helps us live our lives and engage with each other every day not only in our family of Rotary but in our own families as well.

Our family of Rotary is most noticeable when fellow members are in need. But the fellowship we experience at our weekly meetings, at our service projects, bringing our families to shows at DPHS, holiday parties, Taste, Wine and Dine and more are what our extended family is all about. Our book shouldn't be one written by a third-party biographer for others to know us. Our book should be one we write by interacting with each other every day.

Make it a great Rotary week!
Larry

CRUISE REGISTRATION DEADLINE IS FRIDAY

Your chance to join Art and Karen Brown and your fellow Rotarians on the District Cruise to be held February 20 – 25, 2012. But you can't go unless you register by THIS FRIDAY, October 15.

You, your spouse, friends and relatives are all invited to join Art, Karen (and the Winemillers!) on a District cruise to Grand Cayman and Cozumel, Mexico!! We will be sailing on the Carnival ship "Paradise" going out of Tampa. Come join your fellow Rotarians and friends for fun and fellowship on this 5-day get away to "paradise".

The original May 2012 cruise date, which was to be associated with the District Conference, had to be rescheduled since the timing was too close to the Rotary International Convention in Thailand. (RI frowns on anything interfering with the RI Convention!) The only agenda on this outing is to continue PDG Charlie's fifth test, "IS IT FUN?!"

Come join the fun opportunities with music, dancing, great food, entertainment, casino, sightseeing, snorkeling, kayaking, biking, hiking, deep sea fishing, golf, horseback riding, and an optional opportunity for those Rotarians who would like to meet fellow Rotary brothers and sisters in Cozumel, Mexico, when we dock to finalize an international service project. Plan to relax and spend some quality time together! Remember that people who "play" together "stay" together! See you on the high seas!

Contact Paul Crouch from the Seminole County South club at acruisebargains@aol.com for registration details.
